The Famine in China.

WASHINGTON May 20 – U S Minister Seward writes of the famine in China that actual famine is pressing upon fifteen millions of people while sixty millions are more or less distressed Crops have been good immediately around the stricken districts but as food can be transported only on wagons or pack animals it can not be taken over in sufficient quantities to save the lives of the people In Tientsin a house for accommodation of suffering women and children from the famine districts was burned and 150 lives lost

Items from the German Capital

BERLIN May 20 – If Dr Falk cannot be induced to remain minister of public instruction and ecclesiastical affairs, Friedenthal minister of finance may prefer going to seconding the action of the ecclesiastical minister of the Raumer Muehler type

The anti socialist bill will hardly be passed by the liberals without restricting the discretionary power of the government

The Post thinks Dr. Falk will remain in the ministry

A meeting of Social Democrats for the election of delegates to the Social congress at Gath has been prohibited by the prefect of police

Liberals seem to apprehend serious consequences from Dr Falk's retirement and the proposal to restrict the liberty of speech and assembly Again it is held there is little danger of reaction under the present temperate and judicious sovereign and at a time when German unity might suffer from such attempt

CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate

WASHINGTON May 13

Thurman from the judiciary committee to which was recommitted house bill to provide for admission to bar of the supreme court of the United States of any woman who has been a member of the highest court of any state or territory for a period of three years reported it back with amendment of Sargent providing that no person shall be refused admission to the bar of any United States court on account of sex

Thurman said he had been directed by the committee to report as they reported before There was no law prohibiting a court from admitting women to the bar and therefore there was no necessity for this legislation The bill was placed on the calendar with an adverse report

A bill was introduced by Sargent to regulate immigration

Cockrell moved to take up the house bill and place the name of Gen Shields on the retired list with the rank of Brigadier General but after some discussion he withdrew the motion and gave notice that he would renew it later in the day after Morrill should have finished his speech on the repeal of the specie resumption act it being unfinished business.

The bill being taken up Morrill chairman of the finance committee spoke in opposition

The senate insisted on its amendments to the Indian appropriation bill and granted a conference

Same action on the pension bill

Morrill argued there had been no stringency in the money market since 1875 only continued dullness He gave figures to show we have twenty millions more money than we had in 18.. Labor and productive power were the real wealth of the country, and he wanted to put that power to work Those who defeated resumption would have a fearful responsibility If resumption proved impracticable there would be ample time to repeal the act next December He adduced figures of the secretary of the treasury to show our resources and concluded they were ample for resumption Resumption was not in the interest of capital but in the interest of those paid by capitalists

Cockrell moved to take up the bill pensioning Gen Shields agreed to, 33 to 29

Sargent trusted there would be no disposition to pass this bill without its spouser stating some of the circumstances attending it

Cockrell said it was not necessary to recapitulate the history of the connection of Gen Shields with this country for 40 years.

Sargent submitted the following amendment as an additional section

That the president is hereby authorized to appoint Ulysses S Grant late general commanding the army of the United States as a general on the retired list of the army with full rank pay and allowances of that grade except that the general so retired shall not be allowed forage for horses or commutation therefor or aid-de-camp or other staff officers unless called into active service in time of war

Kirkwood inquired if Gen Shields now received pension and if so how much

Cockrell replied that he received $1 25 per month He inquired if the distinguished soldier named in the amendment of Sargent had applied for the proposed relief

Sargent replied in the negative

Voorhees said Gen Shields needed the relief afforded by this bill which Gen Grant did not

Cockrell said he would vote against the amendment because the design of it was to embarrass the bill for the relief of Gen. Shields Whenever a separate bill should be reported for the relief of Gen Grant, he had no doubt it would meet with favorable consideration

Oglesby after eulogizing Grant and Shields said he would be very glad to vote for this bill but there were many other crippled and wounded soldiers all over the country and what could he say to them should he by his vote lift Gen Shields on the retired list of the army and leave all the rest in the rear

Blaine favored the amendment. It was then agreed to yeas 39 nays 18

House.

The speaker pro tem (Sayler announced the appointment of the committee under the Potter resolution to inquire into the alleged frauds in the late presidential election

A bill was introduced by Ellis to protect international and domestic commerce Among its provisions is one empowering the Texas Pacific railroad to extend their line from Fort Worth to the Rio Grande at or near El Paso

The house went into committee of the whole on the army appropriation bill

Crittenden introduced a bill providing that claims of militiamen or non enlisted persons on account of disabilities received in battle with rebels or Indians shall be valid if filed previous to July 1883

Kennel made a speech mainly directed to the dangers of a standing army in time of peace

Humphrey took opposite grounds and argued that in a republican country a standing army was not a menace to the liberties of the people

D W Cheeseman has posted notices announcing himself an independent candidate for representative from Lake county

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Only a Foundation for Peace

ST PETERSBURG May 20 —While there is reason to believe the foundations of an arrangement have been laid between the cabinets of London and St Petersburg the small group of personages who know what is occurring maintain an extreme reserve and it is extremely difficult to know how far the various rumors are to be relied on

Uneasiness at Vienna

LONDON May 20 —Uneasiness is felt at Vienna about the prospect of an understanding between England and Russia This feeling is not shared by the ministers who are thoroughly convinced of England's good faith regarding the European settlement

Berlin Incredulous

Berlin seems to be incredulous about an amicable arrangement A correspondent says Russia has not offered England sufficient concessions a Bulgaria Russia in fact prefers to surrender her Asiatic acquisitions rather than forego her schemes in Bulgaria

Not Hostile, though Exciting.

Russian official papers reiterate the statement that the movements before Constantinople are not hostile or menacing A Pera correspondent says this is becoming the general conviction there though Thursday's and Friday's movements caused a regular panic The strength and organization of the Turkish army is now such that a prudent general like Todleben would hesitate to attempt a coup de main while his rear is harrassed by insurrection Todleben's object has been to take up a good defensive position He was not allowed to fall back from San Stefano He therefore consolidated his men as far as possible by bringing up troops from the rear

Hartington's Resolution.

LONDON May 20 —In the house of commons this afternoon Lord Hartington moved his resolution that no forces be raised or kept by the crown in time of peace save within India without the sanction of parliament He said he had made the issue very narrow because the question in itself was sufficiently important to fix the attention of parliament because of the delicate negotiations which the discussion might prejudice and because Sir Stafford Northcote himself had said that a general debate at present was not in the interest of the country

SUPT. OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

FOREST GROVE May 20 1878.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

The entire Republican state ticket meets with general approval among the people here and Republicans of Washington county calculate to make a good showing for the party on the first Monday in June

Professor L J Powell, nominee for the office of superintendent of public instruction will undoubtedly lead the ticket in this county, as not only Republicans, but many Democrats will cast their votes for him Prof Powell has for more than 15 years been connected with the educational interests of Oregon and during this time has won for himself the high distinction of being one of the leading educators of the state He has always been a firm friend of our public schools and has said and done much for their advancement For six consecutive years he was superintendent of schools in Marion county and at the close of his administration the people with one accord said well done He enjoys the honor of having inaugurated the teachers institutes of that county, which have been fruitful of much lasting good to the school interests of that locality As professor of mathematics in the Willamette University he served for the period of twelve years and during one year was a member of the faculty of Pacific University While here he made many friends all of whom can testify to his being eminently fitted for the office to which he has been nominated As the office is by no means a political one the people of the state will, of course vote for the candidate best qualified

Well Said for John Morrissey.

[From the Philadelphia Record]

There is a moral connected with the career and made conspicuous by the death of John Morrissey that should not pass unheeded No man can read the unaffected eulogiums upon his public services without being convinced of their sincerity. When it is considered what Mr Morrissey's antecedents were and from what a depth of moral disadvantage he made his way to the esteem of men whose good opinion is a valuable possession we know of no instance so impressive for the encouragement of other men who have placed themselves under the ban of society There is hope for the worst man who turns resolutely from his vices

Encouraging View from England

[From the London Times]

Americans have political sagacity enough to distinguish sharply between intemperate or even revolutionary speech and rebellious action They have unbounded toleration for the one but have never shown any great patience with the other We do not doubt if they have to deal with any dangerous form of communism, that they will deal with it effectively The social fabric of the United States is as capable of successfully resisting such an attack as that of any state in the world

Hon A H Brown State Treasurer Dear Sir—Referring to my two former letters to you in which I made application through you to the board of commissioners for the sale of ... university and state lands for the state of Oregon for the loan of $5 000 in gold coin for the period of three years I have the pleasure to return herewith the blank you sent me properly filled together with the certificate of the county clerk of this county that there are no encumbrances or liens upon the property described The school superintendent for this county being remote I have availed myself of your suggestion and had the property appraised by two of my neighbors—Messrs George ... and T T Burch both highly responsible and respectable gentlemen You will observe that they have placed the value of the ... acres exclusive of the improvements at $25 000 in gold ... The improvements there I have cost me about as much more Still if you have a particle of doubt about the sufficiency of the security it will afford me great pleasure to double it and make it equal to any suburban lots in the state

I shall also be glad to be bound to pay any attorney fees or other expenses that may accrue in the collection of the money I regard the educational funds of the state as of too sacred a character to be trifled with or to be loaned upon insufficient security hence my anxiety to give the most ample security for any amount that I may borrow In the interest of the proper husbanding of the sacred fund I desire my application and the action of the board upon it to be considered as a purely business transaction without any consideration of personal or political favoritism in my behalf and in the interest of fair dealing as well as to remove any predilection in my favor which may exist with the board I deem it proper that I should explicitly state that I do not know of any state official including the honorable members of your board whose reelection I would support either at the primaries or at the polls

My wife's Christian name is Pauline which you can insert in the mortgage I will be ready to execute the note and mortgage at any moment you may notify me that the money is ready

I am respectfully your obedient servant
J W NESMITH

SALEM Dec 11 1877

Hon J W Nesmith Dear Sir—Yours of this date covering the appraisement is at hand

I do not think the board will object to the appraisement as it seems that your place is really equal to suburban lots

As to the conditions on which the loan will be made the board have rules to govern them—and I beg of you not to lose any sleep by undue anxiety as to the conditions to be embraced in the note and mortgage as I think they will cover all the ground you have taken so much pains to travel over

As for your special pleadings I think it comes in bad taste from one who has been honored by the people of this state to so high a position as that of ... senator to intimate that he could be purchased to support any member of the board at the primaries or at the polls

I for one have not asked you to support me as a Democrat I hold to the old rule—that the office seeks the man and not the man the office

So soon as I get sufficient ... I will send the papers for your signature Yours truly,
A H BROWN

DIXIE Polk Co Dec 15 1877

Hon A H Brown, State Treasurer My Dear Sir—Your esteemed favor of the 11th inst in reply to mine of the same date reached me three days since My constant occupation upon the farm is my only excuse for not giving you my earlier personal attention

I am gratified now to learn that the board has rules to govern them Rules are powerful good things to have, particularly when they are observed Judging from the published official acts of the board, which show that a very large amount of the common school and university funds of the state had been gotten away with upon fictitious security by a late member of your honorable board I had concluded that division was the only rule that you had for your government

I was aware that the statutes contained some rules upon the subject of your duties but the official reports show that they have been utterly disregarded Hence my anxiety to have the loan which you propose to make me placed upon a different basis from the rule which has apparently governed the action of your board in loaning the public funds

In the simplicity of my nature it seems that, in my application I exhibited an anxiety for the protection of the educational fund, and a candor which you neither comprehend nor appreciate

Passing over the trifle of ill nature which you exhibit in characterizing my communication as special pleading, let me assure you that if you will examine any standard author upon pleadings you will find that I have confined myself to the general issue. But my dear sir, where you wound my feelings the worst and arrogate the imprudent elevation of yourself is in your commentary upon my bad taste That was the most unkindest cut of all Your criticism prove you a Turveydrop in deportment as well as a Skimpole in finance

Pardon me for saying that you exhibit a trifle of stolidity in your failure to comprehend the force of my remark about the primaries and the polls I was really not so much afraid of being sold myself as I was of purchasing the board particularly at a time when I have more stock of that kind than I cared to winter. Your past experience doubtless suggested the idea of purchase

A member of the last legislature who had made many promises and pledges adverse to one of the members of your board like myself wanted money and applied to you for it. You let him have the money without the formality of a mortgage or an appraisement You subsequently I believe did take such security on behalf of the board upon a heavily encumbered farm I understand that you swore before the senate committee that the money loaned was your own private funds I do not know under which one of your rules you transferred a private debt to the public board

In any event the member of the legislature got the money, and a member of your board got his vote I have always hoped that there was neither perjury nor peculation involved in the transaction

A leading newspaper of this state commenting upon the transaction declared that you had no right to make such use of the public funds and that if you had loaned your private funds, as you swore you did you had committed a fraud upon your creditors

You will observe that neither horn of the dilemma is capable of elevating you much above the level of common honesty

The point that I desire to arrive at is that with those transactions fresh in your memory it illy becomes you to be mouthing the word purchase

I am your obedient servant

TWO SYSTEMS

There is a system of politics which is pursued solely for the individual advantage of the few who manage to control and direct it. Their connection with political affairs has reference wholly to their own profit. They make a trade of this sort of business and pursue it without any views outside of their own interest. Of such system the object is to promote or conserve the personal interests of those who manage to be at the head of it. Primaries caucuses and conventions are controlled with this view. Nominations are not made with a view to fitness for public ends nor with a thought for the promotion of any useful or important public object. These are considerations that never enter into the effort. The moving cause, the main spring of all, is the purpose of a class who employ themselves in the professional way to use politics and the public service for their own behoof. Ingenuity and energy are alike employed to get results which shall be favorable as possible to individual interests and purposes and to obtain them with the smallest possible concessions to public opinion and the public welfare. This is the system under which the Mitchell ticket in Multnomah was produced. It is the work of men who desire to keep him in the senate that he may keep them in official positions, and others have engaged with them in the hope of being able to get into place where they may command like considerations. To carry the undertaking through this combination relies on the habit which many people have of voting the "regular party nominations" without hesitation or inquiry. But this habit, owing to the spread of independence among the people has become an unsure thing to depend on. It has failed on numerous occasions of late as senators in many states who have attempted to re-elect themselves through the machine system, have fully learned to their chagrin and disappointment.

There was a demand in Multnomah for a ticket of another description, a ticket not the product of officialism, nor the outgrowth of a desire on the part of a few to manage politics in a professional way for personal ends. Behind the independent ticket is no system which promises personal reward. It is not in any sense an effort "to work the thing up for what there is in it." So distant is it from the motive which pursues politics as a trade, that not the slightest purpose of this nature can be drawn from it or imputed to it. It promises no official appointments, and offers nobody a chance to make anything out of the public service. The members it may send to the legislature deliberately preclude themselves from everything of this kind. The very nature of their undertaking shuts it off in advance. Men who take independent action on these occasions go against the usages which sanction the "regular" system. It is the very object they have in view. Such action as they take in relation to politics is inspired by the very opposite of that motive which puts up office and patronage and perquisites as rewards for those most cunning in artifice and most supple in making combinations. It is not a movement to get the largest results for individual managers with the least possible amount of public consent. It grows out of a public want, not out of personal or official interests. No man nor ring controls it.

Beyond doubt these two opposite systems are well defined in the minds of a majority of our people. Every one may see. Examples, proofs and illustrations are abundant enough and pregnant enough. It is an issue so plain that no one among us may mistake it.

A CANADIAN'S DISCOURAGEMENT

One James H. Bell lately wrote a letter from Portland to the Orillia (Canada) Times, in which he gives this advice:

> If there are any with you who are anxious to seek homes in Oregon under the delusive hope that this is the Eden of the West, I would strongly urge them to stay where they are. Hundreds who have emigrated to this place deeply regret having done so, the country is not what they expected and gold no more here than elsewhere can be picked up for the stooping. The country is overrun with persons out of employment and many families are absolutely destitute. * * Any one in Canada possessed of a comfortable home and moderate prospects would be guilty of a very mad act if he sold out to move to Oregon. Tell your readers so, for I have many friends among them whom I would wish to warn against so great a folly.

It might be a question whether a person who has a comfortable home anywhere should remove from it to another country, though great numbers of such have found it to their advantage to remove to Oregon from better countries than Canada. They did not remove, however, under expectation of finding paradise here, or of picking up gold for the stooping. It is probable enough that many were not able to find employment in Portland during the past winter, and this will always happen anywhere when large numbers without means or resources to help themselves after their arrival remove to new places. But it is absurd to say that Oregon is overrun with persons out of employment. From several parts of the state we have heard recently that there has been greatest difficulty in getting help for the spring's work. In a new country like this an energetic man need not long depend on the wages of labor. So many chances are offered that he may presently do something on his own account. It all depends on one's spirit and energy. A person may sit down in helplessness, or he may do almost anything he tries.

PLEASE GIVE PARTICULARS

Great things, Mitchell's claquers are fond of saying, have been achieved by him during his term in the senate; therefore he should be re-elected. But when an account is demanded of these great things there is always an awkward pause. At last every time the list of achievements is narrowed down to the bill for locks at the Cascades. But it happens that Mr. Mitchell did not originate this undertaking. It was Mr. Lane's measure. It was prepared, worked up and pushed through by Lane. So this must be deducted from the list of Mitchell's achievements. Then what is there? He has industriously attended to the "postmasters at the corners," and this with the numerous bills he has introduced, not one of which has become a law, is the clear total. The contrast with the work of other senators, who have accomplished from time to time really important things for the state is very marked. It is the more so as other senators have secured us the grants on which the railways we have were constructed while Mr Mitchell has thus far by the only really vigorous efforts he has yet made in the senate, succeeded in defeating the extension of a grant which would give us railway connection with the east within a few years. THE OREGONIAN intends to be entirely fair about this matter, and freely offers its columns for publication of an account of the measures for the welfare of the state which the senator who has done more for Oregon than any senator the state ever had, has originated and carried through. Who will furnish it?

TO THE VERY POINT

"If," says the Yamhill Reporter in a criticism upon the obstructive provisions which Mitchell has put in the Northern Pacific railroad bill—"if a railroad opens up and develops the country with its advent as we claim it should be allowed to enjoy the reward which its own benefits create as well as its neighbors. Under the ruling of this bill the company's sales are restricted to small prices while actual settlers are given the privilege of speculating on the increase of values which the railroad itself creates. Such discrimination is unjust. If our government has lands which it desires improved to the extent that it can afford to pay a part of the domain for the general improvement, well and good, but all who lend a helping hand in the advancement should be given equal advantages. Corporations as well as settlers should be free and unfettered custodians of what they honestly earn. If the government has no lands to spare on such conditions then that is another proposition which congress could soon settle by grasping all railroad land grant schemes by the throat. It is child's play to be wasting time on such sterile arrangements as have been in vogue for months under the deceptive show of getting a railroad for Oregon."

There is a good observation by the Philadelphia Record in the remark that the advocates of violent athletic exercises as a means of promoting health and strength of body and mind are false philosophers and dangerous teachers. Charles Reade in his excellent novel of "Man and Wife" has illustrated the evil of extreme physical exercise very graphically. In the career and death of Geoffrey Delmayne he furnishes a proper warning to young men, especially collegians who appear to have imbibed the notion that to exercise habitually their physical powers to the utmost is to make themselves giants both in physical and intellectual strength. But there are actual examples enough to convince any one of this folly. It has its lesson in the death of John Morrissey at forty seven and of John C Heenan at a still earlier age and it is said there is no instance in which a man who had habitually followed extreme exertion having lived to a great age. No labor that one pursues for a livelihood so taxes the powers as the extreme voluntary exercise which many are foolish enough to follow for the pride of developing physical strength. Nature avenges these as all other excesses.

An important contribution to the correspondence relating to the school fund loans is presented in another place to day. This racy correspondence is so far of an official and public nature that no privacy is violated in presenting it through our columns. It will be perused with very considerable interest and no little amusement by pretty much everybody in Oregon. We fear the loan failed. This was a pity after so much fine writing about it. But the writing we are glad to say isn't wanted. Rescued from the dusty files of the treasurer's office and given to the public through THE OREGONIAN it will be granted that the letters have not been written in vain—though the loan did fail.

We the undersigned hereby certify that we have this day witnessed the operation of the Osborne Self Binding Harvester in Mr Green's grain. The machine works perfectly cutting and binding the grain as advertised to do. The bundles after being bound are gently dropped to the ground on their butt ends, not a straw or head being wasted. The machine is extremely simple and easy to handle. Any person competent to run a common reaper should be able to operate it.

TUESDAY MORNING MAY 21 1878

CITY.

NEW UNITARIAN CHURCH.—Plans for the new Unitarian church which is to be built at the corner of Seventh and Yamhill streets the present season arrived on the last steamer and are now at the office of Messrs Williams & Krumbein. These plans were drawn by the firm of Peabody & Stevens Boston Mass. The new church edifice according to the plans will be 59 feet wide and 67 feet long. The basement will be of brick. The building will front on Seventh street—the same direction as the present chapel does. The old building which has served as a church for a number of years will be turned around and moved back and attached to the rear portion of the new edifice. A small addition will be made to the north end of the old building which will be used as a sort of reception parlor. With this addition the old building will be [illegible] feet long and 38 feet wide. The new building is to contain [illegible] rows of seats and the auditorium will be capable of holding a large number of people. At each side of the front entrance will be a vestibule for hats, coats etc. The organ will occupy a position on the right hand side as one enters the building and the platform as one enters the building, and a dressing room on the left hand side. The church will be heated by hot air supplied from the furnace in the basement. The old building at the rear will probably be used as a place for the meeting of committees, Sunday school sociables etc. The architectural style of the church will be English gothic and will present an imposing and handsome appearance. A spire will rise from the east end of the building about 120 feet in height. It is estimated that the new church will cost in the neighborhood of $25 000, and when completed will be one of the most substantial buildings of the kind in the city. As soon as the specifications can be prepared, and some slight modifications made to the plans, work will commence.

ACCIDENTS.—A few days since a little son of Mr Geo Woods who resides in East Portland, met with a severe fall. The lad had climbed into one of the fruit trees standing in Mr Woods' yard and was sitting on a small branch urging some of his companions below to come up. Suddenly the limb snapped and precipitated the boy to the ground. His right forearm was fractured in two places by the force of the fall, and his face severely bruised. The lad was picked up in a state of insensibility, carried into the house and medical aid invoked. Consciousness soon returned and the fractured limb was set. When last heard from the lad was getting along very well. Sunday afternoon Mrs. Simon, an old lady nearly 70 years of age, met with a painful accident at the residence of her daughter Mrs Springer, on Sixth street, near College. While descending the stairs the old lady missed her footing and fell to the landing a considerable distance. Both bones of the left leg were broken between the knee and ankle. Mrs. Simon was also considerably bruised. The bones were properly set and the sufferer is resting quite comfortably.

BISHOP SCOTT'S GRAMMAR SCHOOL.—Some days ago workmen commenced removing the old charred debris where the Bishop Scott Grammar School formerly stood. Excavation followed, and masons are now engaged in laying the foundation. The work will be done by day's labor, Mr Therkelsen having personal charge of the construction. Plans for the new school building can be seen at the office of Messrs. Williams & Krumbein. The new building will consist of a basement, first and second story, and attic. The foundation will be made of brick and the building of wood. Its entire cost will be in the vicinity of $12 000. The basement will consist of a dining room, store room, kitchen, hall, pantry, etc. The second story will consist of a parlor chapel chamber, library, hall and vestibule and the third story of a large school room, two recitation rooms, chambers, bath room alcove hall balcony, etc. The work will be crowded forward to an early completion.

FISH LIFE.—We mentioned recently that a large number of young salmon hatched out at the establishment on the Clackamas had been brought to this city, where they were placed on exhibition in the show window at Skidmore's drug store. For several days they seemed quite lively and appeared to be thriving in their somewhat confined though elegant quarters. They were regularly supplied with fresh water and all done that could be to support and cause them to grow, but it became evident that they must have the range of their natural element and be permitted to select their own food and haunts in order to come to the full proportions of salmonhood. Within the past few days they have apparently become tired of life, and a great many of them have turned their sides to the light and "passed in their chips." The effort to keep salmon alive for any great length of time out of the river and sea is proved to be fruitless.

ONE HOUR BETTER.—At six o clock last Saturday morning the steamship Oregon swung out from her dock at this port and turned her prow down stream. In a little less than seven hours the Oregon arrived at Astoria. After about three hours' delay the steamer sailed for San Francisco at which place she arrived yesterday morning at 8 o clock. She was just fifty hours in making the passage from dock to dock. This is just one hour better than the Oregon made on her last trip down. That's the pole which knocks the persimmon from the topmost twig. What has our Washington territory friends got to say now about the speed of the Dakota?

JUST LIKE HIM.—Harry C Boyd was the recipient of a piece of bride's cake. Meeting the groom, Harry suggested enclosing that identical piece of cake in a casket together with a written agreement between the two that at the end of twenty years from the day the marriage was consummated, that a meeting between the parties should be had and the box opened. This and other clauses of less importance were written out and in the presence of witnesses, was duly acknowledged before a notary. The document will be placed in bank with the casket. We dare say few would think of such an agreement but Harry Boyd.

RETURN THANKS.—We have received the following note from Mr D W C Dennison who was accidently shot a few days ago while out hunting back of St. Helens with the request to publish the same: I take this opportunity of thanking the people of St. Helens for their prompt and willing assistance in bringing me out of the mountains on Sunday last in a wounded condition, and shall always remember their kindness with gratitude. I also thank the ladies of St. Helens for their kindness and attention.

IN TOWN.—Mr Craigie Sharp Jr, general travelling agent for the Wilson Sewing Machine has arrived in the city. The machine took three first premiums at the Oregon State Fair of 1877 over all competitors. It has a mending attachment which darns stockings, towels, etc. Mr Sharp now at the Occidental, wants a first class man to handle this machine in Portland and vicinity and offers better terms than any other company.

SNOWDEN MINERAL SPRING.—We are informed that every effort will be made to accommodate all that may apply at this popular resort. Many have been cured in two or three weeks' use of the water in the last three months. No trouble nor expense is being spared to make guests comfortable at this favorite watering place.

DISSOLVED.—The firm of Bates & Locke, advertising agents, New York city has been dissolved, Mr D P Locke retiring. Our relations with this firm have been very pleasant indeed.

CITY.

New Unitarian Church.—Plans for the new Unitarian church which is to be built at the corner of Seventh and Yamhill streets the present season arrived on the last steamer, and are now at the office of Messrs. Williams & Krumbein These plans were drawn by the firm of Peabody & Stevens, of Boston Mass The new church edifice according to the plans will be 50 feet wide and 85 feet long. The basement will be of brick. The building will front on Seventh street—in the same direction that the present chapel does. The old building which has served as a church for a number of years will be turned around and moved back and attached to the rear portion of the new edifice. A small addition will be made to the north end of the old building which will be used as a sort of reception parlor. With this addition the old building will be 81 feet long and 36 feet wide. The new building is to contain … rows of seats, and the auditorium will be capable of holding a large number of people. At each side of the front entrance will be a wardrobe for hats coats etc The organ will occupy a position on the right hand side of the platform as one enters the building and a dressing room on the left hand side. The church will be heated by hot air supplied from the furnace in the basement. The old building at the rear will probably be used as a place for the meeting of committees Sunday school, sociables etc The architectural style of the church will be English gothic and will present an imposing and handsome appearance. A spire will rise from the east end of the building about 120 feet in height. It is estimated that the new church will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000, and when completed will be one of the most substantial buildings of the kind in the city. As soon as the specifications can be prepared, and some slight modifications made to the plans work will commence.

Accident.—A few days since a little son of Mr. Geo. Woods, who resides in East Portland, met with a severe fall. The lad had climbed into one of the fruit trees standing in Mr. Woods' yard, and was sitting on a limb watching urging some of his companions below to come up. Suddenly the limb snapped and precipitated the boy to the ground. His right forearm was fractured in two places by the force of the fall and he was severely bruised. The lad was picked up in a state of insensibility, carried into the house and medical aid invoked. Consciousness soon returned and the fractured limb was set. When last heard from the lad was getting along very well. Sunday afternoon Mrs. Simon, an old lady nearly 70 years of age met with a painful accident at the residence of her daughter, Mrs Springer on [illegible] street, near College. While descending the stairs the old lady missed her footing and fell to the landing, a considerable distance. Both bones of the left leg were broken between the knee and ankle. Mrs. Simon was also considerably bruised. The bones were properly set and the sufferer is resting comfortably.

Bishop Scott's Grammar School.—Some twenty workmen commenced removing the [illegible] charred debris where the Bisop Scott Grammar School formerly stood. Excavation followed, and masons are now engaged in laying the foundation. The work will be done by day's labor, Mr. Therkelsen having general charge of the construction. Plans for the new school building can be seen at the office of Messrs. Williams & Krumbein. The building will consist of a basement, first and second story, and attic. The foundation will be made of brick and the building of wood. Its entire cost will be in the vicinity of $12,000. The basement will consist of a dining room, store room, kitchen, hall [illegible] etc. The second story will consist of [illegible] chapel, chamber, library, hall and [illegible] and the third story of a large school room, two recitation rooms, chambers, bath room, store, hall, balcony, etc. The work will be pushed forward to an early completion.

Salmon.—We mentioned recently that a few dozen of young salmon hatched out at the establishment on the Clackamas had been brought to this city, where they were placed on exhibition in the show window at [illegible] drug store. For several days they [illegible] quite lively and appeared to be thriving though somewhat confined though elsewise. They were regularly supplied with food, and all done that could be [illegible] to allow them to grow but it be [illegible] that they must have the range of the [illegible] element and be permitted to [illegible] their feed and haunts in order to [illegible] full proportions of salmonhood. [illegible] the past few days they have apparently become tired of life, and a great many have turned their sides to the light and [illegible] their chips.' The effort to [illegible] alive for any great length of time out of a river and s [illegible] is proved to be [illegible]

Steamship Oregon.—At six o'clock last Saturday morning the steamship Oregon swung from her dock at this port and turned her bow down stream. In a little less than seven hours the Oregon arrived at Astoria. After [illegible] three hours' delay the steamer sailed for San Francisco, at which place she arrived [illegible] morning at 8 o'clock. She was just [illegible] making the passage from dock to dock [illegible] just one hour better than [illegible] made on her last trip down [illegible] which knocks the persimmon [illegible] the topmost twig. What has our Washington friends got to say now about the Dakota?

[illegible]—Harry C Boyd was the [illegible] of a piece of bride's cake Meeting [illegible] Harry suggested enclosing that [illegible] cake in a casket together [illegible] an agreement between the two [illegible] end of twenty years from the day [illegible] was consummated, that a meeting of the parties should be had and [illegible] opened. This, and other clauses of [illegible] were written out, and in the [illegible] witnessed was duly acknowledged [illegible] notary. The document will be [illegible] with the casket. We dare [illegible] think of such an agreement [illegible] Mrs. Boyd.

Thanks.—We have received the [illegible] from Mr. D. W C. Dennison [illegible] accidentally shot a few days ago [illegible] hunting back of St Helens, with [illegible] to publish the same 'I take [illegible] of thanking the people of [illegible] for their prompt and willing assistance in bringing me out of the mountains [illegible] in a wounded condition, and [illegible] remember their kindness with [illegible] thank the ladies of St Helens for their kindness and attention

[illegible]—Mr. Craigie Sharp, Jr general agent for the Wilson Sewing Machine has arrived in the city. The machine [illegible] first premiums at the Oregon State Fair of 1877 over all competitors. It has a [illegible] attachment which darns stockings [illegible] Mr. Sharp, now at the Occidental, [illegible] a man to handle this machine in Portland and vicinity, and offers [illegible] any other company

[illegible] Mineral Spring.—We are in[illegible] every effort will be made to accommodate all that may apply at this popular [illegible] Many have been cured in two or [illegible] use of the water in the last [illegible] No trouble nor expense is [illegible] to make guests comfortable at this favorite watering place

Dissolved.—The firm of Bates & Locke, [illegible] agents, New York city has been dissolved, Mr. D R Locke retiring. Our relations with this firm have been very pleasant indeed.

JURY DISCHARGED

At 10 o clock yesterday morning the jury in the case of United States vs W C Griswold was called into court by the judge and discharged without giving a verdict They reported that they stood 8 to 3 as they had been since soon after retiring Before discharging the jury Judge Deady said to them

I am sorry that a sense of what was due to the parties to this cause has constrained me to keep you out so long The case having occupied near four weeks in the presentation of it to you and having been informed by you on Saturday morning that you were so near agreed as to stand 8 to 3 I was in hopes that with more time for consultation and deliberation you might agree to a verdict and thereby save the parties the great trouble and expense of a retrial

But after 62 hours of continuous deliberation you have failed to agree and the result is another convincing proof of what I have long been satisfied that the law requiring unanimity in a verdict has become a serious impediment to the correct and speedy administration of justice and that it ought to be so changed as to allow the finding of a majority of the jury to be received a a verdict Had this been the law the finding of two thirds of this jury would have been accepted as a verdict and the case disposed of within a few hours after it was given to you

THE UNION COUNTY TRAGEDY

From the Union Sentinel [illegible] the following particulars of the double tragedy recently enacted have been obtained

About 1 o clock on the morning of the [illegible] inst there was perpetrated in front of Chance's hotel in our town one of the most startling, and the most diabolical murder that ever darkened the criminal records of the Pacific coast The facts as near as we can gather them are about as follows John F Hibrun and wife were returning home from a party given at the Centennial hotel in company with Mrs Sullivan's m[illegible] In front of Chaffey's hotel they passed A J Weddle who without giving them any warning drew a revolver and placing it against Mr Sullivan fired it, the ball [illegible] right side of the spine and [illegible] Mr Sullivan fell and before Mr Sullivan could turn fairly around he was shot the ball striking him in the left side of the lower abdomen and ranging from left to right Though stunned by the wound Sullivan with characteristic grit turned upon the would be murderer and struck him with his fist He gathered up some stones and [illegible] the [illegible] that was across the street before he fell They were both immediately taken up and carried home Dr Cronin [illegible] Dr [illegible] were immediately summoned and proceeded to examine the wounds which unfortunately were of such a nature as to prevent the finding of the balls by probing The wounds are considered very dangerous and at the present writing the appearances are that both will be fatal Mr [illegible] appear to suffer the most, the right leg being paralyzed Weddle after doing the shooting ran around by Jack's streets and went directly to the sheriff's residence and gave himself up saying as he gave up the pistol "Here take this and turn the key on me to night Do what you please with me hang me if you want to In response to the sheriff's query if he had used it he said Yes I've used it you will find out in the morning what I have done The only motive for the deed appears to have been malice and jealousy It seems that previous to Mrs Sullivan's first marriage Weddle sought her hand in marriage but was refused After the death of Dr Baker he renewed the attentions but was persistently refused At this he took umbrage and swore that he would send her to the boneyard and since her second marriage he has repeated the threat a dozen times to Mr Bud Chapman and others His threats were so often and of such a dangerous character that he was arrested a few months since and examined as to his sanity, but was discharged To show the more plainly his intent in the matter a short time previous to the shooting he went to the office of the Centennial hotel and asked Bud Chapman if Mr and Mrs Sullivan were at the party Being informed that they were he said he guessed he would go up awhile not having a ticket he was refused admission and came back replying to Mr Chapman's banter that he did not dance long, There's too many there for my dance

Mr and Mrs Sullivan are both well known in our county Mr Sullivan being the proprietor of an extensive saddlery and harness establishment here Mrs Sullivan was formerly the wife of the late lamented Dr M Baker of this place by whom she was the mother of three beautiful children two boys and a girl aged respectively about 7 5 and 3 years

Weddle the fiend who perpetrated this dastardly crime is an insignificant looking dried up washed faced hump backed erratic crack brained individual aged probably 45 years who has lived in Union for ten or twelve years most of the time having been employed as cook at the Union hotel Lately he has been attending to Wells Fargo & Co's express during Mr Hannah's absence and also in assisting Mr Eaton in and about his store Persons who seem to know him best and who have placed the greatest confidence in him are loudest in setting up the plea of insanity which will no doubt be urged in defense of the horrible crime of which there is no question of his guilt but whether that well worn plea will save his neck is yet a question of time

Since writing the above Mr Sullivan died about 11 30 o clock and a coroner's jury is now investigating the case with E S McComas presiding as justice of the peace Mrs Sullivan is very low with no hopes of her recovery The probabilities now are that they will both be buried in the same grave The Improved Order of Red Men have charge of the corpse of Mr Sullivan

MILK RANCHES—CATTLE LIMITS—STREET EXTENSIONS.

Portland May 11 1878

To the Editor of the Oregonian

We can safely leave it to the determination of those most immediately interested in the matter whether it is just or right to force street improvements in the vicinity where milk ranches are permitted to roam within the city limit and prosecute their business College street has just been directed to be improved from Seventh to Ninth street On the corner of Ninth and College [illegible] Ninth street is also the western boundary line of the cattle limits

[illegible] from the fact that stray or any other [illegible] wonder which [illegible] within so wrong's [illegible] the peculiar interests [illegible] The property owners in the vast [illegible] College and Ninth streets have but little benefit from any improvement they may be compelled to make [illegible] way of streets and sidewalks and the [illegible] may be said property owners on either [illegible] go for some distance down that street The cattle limit [illegible] streets defining the limits where cattle may not be permitted to wander at large destroy young shade trees and the sidewalks by breaking them down and making them take on the appearance of the frontage of corrals is particularly approved by those who are the real owners of property in the city for the owners of city property generally desire to improve their property so that they may realize something from it in the way of frontage Hence the unusually large number of buildings being built this summer in the suburbs of our pleasant appearing city However all this will [illegible] come to naught unless a much better care be manifested to prevent the encroachment of cattle—[illegible] for people will cease buying property and improving it by the erection of neat and fine dwelling houses The writer is a sufferer in this respect and would never have bought property in the suburbs if he had known of this cattle nuisance for it is a most [illegible] since The owners of milk ranches and some thoroughbred cattle have a mistaken idea that so long as they have a herdsman along with their stock in the streets they have a perfect right to graze them anywhere where the best grass may be and so appropriate it If this business is under the charge of the chief of police he ought to be paying it some attention He can always find material with which to occupy his time especially in the southwestern part of the city particularly in the mornings and afternoons If the law cannot be enforced it ought to be repealed without delay and then the expense attending useless street improvements it is hoped may cease for a time at least

Gold in New York, 10[illegible]

Legal tenders in Portland—buying 99[illegible], selling par

Silver coin [illegible] per cent. discount

The first day of the week is generally dull and to day has not been an exception notwithstanding the great improvement in the weather over most of last week. Commercial matters have undergone no special change the volume of transactions being average. There is some increase in the inquiry from the wool and salmon trades which are beginning to assume considerable magnitude. Rates are steady at the figures here for rates. The supply of loanable funds however is kept up to a limit sufficiently large to meet the [illegible] inquiry

From San Francisco the mail brings us but little in the way of news of a business character. An exchange from that city says it is painful to contemplate the fact that quite a number of capitalists who have acquired their fortunes in this country have lately manifested a decided preference for investments outside of this state and are literally sending their money abroad to be placed in foreign enterprises. These men are doing incalculable injury to the land whence they have drawn all their prosperity and committing more positive harm than could a hundred addled brained Kearneys. The display of a little real grit a little steadfast courage on their part, would do much to set things right and promote the general prosperity

Wheat.

The market shows a very stagnant phase and buyers exhibit as little disposition to operate as holders. The excellent outlook for the new crop and the uncertainty connected with the future of the market tend to make all parties cautious about carrying much over the harvest. From all parts of this state the reports of latest dates confirm former accounts of a larger acreage and a splendid growth of grain. From California advices by mail are of great encouragement among the wheat-growers. The Commercial Herald of the 16th says

Tonnage is now rapidly accumulating in port preparatory to the incoming grain crop in July and August. At this writing but little spot freight is offering, and in the absence of any wheat charters upon the market rates of freights are scarcely quotable. This state of inactivity we hope will be of short duration. Crop prospects continue good for the most part, but as is usually the case at this season croakers abound, and we hear more or less grumbling of short crops light yields etc. There is no doubt a failure of crops in some of the wet overflowed districts where by reason of standing water and a surfeit of moisture many fields sown to wheat, produce nothing but cheat and will therefore be cut for hay. But in any event we feel quite sure that we will have this crop year all the grain we can handle, and that if foreign markets will take our surplus of breadstuffs that our exports the year to come will exceed that of any preceding year in our history

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success
IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL
Chronic and Difficult Diseases.

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS
public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease mentally and physically he has restored them to health and happiness, for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

DR. BRENAN
has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases, Catarrh Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and chest by an entirely new system only known to himself. Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs including Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood. In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach bowels, liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints and understands their delicate and refined organization as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE
over most physicians—he can tell the patients' disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

will send to those living at a distance and who can not well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps

Everything strictly confidential and honorable.

THE DOCTOR
has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify

CAUTION.
Persons coming to Portland requiring medical treatment of the proper kind who desire to consult with me, will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so called Doctors through pretended friendship for the patients. Look out for them they are knaves prompted by selfish motives and what they can make. Be sure and ask for DR PAUL M BRENAN, the Medical Lecturer and read his sign on his door

ELLSWORTH Me May 20.—There are evidences that the Russian forces on the Cimbria may [illegible] part of them transferred [illegible] last week, thirteen Russian officers including the paymaster left yesterday for New York and Boston. To day three Russian engineers from the Cimbria passed through Ellsworth on their way to New York. The officers in charge are endeavoring to arrange for conveyance of the men to Bangor to take the cars to New York.

An Absconder Arrested

CHICAGO May 21.—The Journal says Chicago detectives this morning arrested David I. Maitland formerly of Toronto but more recently of San Francisco whence he ran away this spring taking with him [illegible] his friend and benefactor Thomas Tinsley [illegible] stock speculation by which Tinsley lost $15,000. Maitland's last act in San Francisco was to take the depreciated stock to sell for Tinsley realizing $1 500 on it. He set out for Toronto without settling. He is now locked up awaiting requisition

A Sister to the Cimbria.

PORTLAND Me May 21—It is rumored here that a sister ship to the Cimbria is shortly expected in this harbor

Unfortunate, Truly

NEW YORK May 21.—Ex Gov Packard is mentioned by the writer as without occupation and [illegible] purse and these are not his worst misfortunes. During the past three months he has lost two of his children by death and his intelligent [illegible] that his mother [illegible] Besides this his confirmation as consul [illegible] is not so sure

Home, Sweet Home

The Tribune's [illegible] Grant writes to a friend in this country that he thinks of staying away another year though in the interesting scenes and experience incident to his visit and despite the attentions which he has received from rulers, cities and the people and from municipal and civil bodies he often longs for the day of his return to his native land. He says the attentions which he has received have convinced him of the real admiration which the whole people of Europe rulers and subjects have for the greatness enlightenment power and progress of the United States and that these attentions he appreciates are designed more as a token of respect for his country than a personal testimonial to himself

Notable Death

NEW YORK May 21.—Rev Sam'l S Isaacs, editor of the Jewish Messenger and oldest Jewish minister in the country, died last night aged 74

A Truly Singular Scene.

CHICAGO May 20.—When Mr Blaine was on the floor of the house on Friday last just before the culmination of the struggle, he remarked to one of the Republican members that it was certainly a most novel and peculiar spectacle to see on one side more than a hundred Democrats fighting solidly together, for a purpose which at least half of them were opposed to at heart and on the other side more than a hundred Republicans fighting as solidly against a thing which at least half of them secretly favored and hoped would succeed

WASHINGTON CITY

Democratic Committees.

WASHINGTON May 20.—The Democratic campaign committee composed of Representative Blackburn chairman Senator McDonald and Representatives Banning, Huston and Jones of N H elected as a resident committee Gen A B Denver John G Thompson and Jas E Harvey and selected Mr Harvey as treasurer and Gen Duncan S Walker as secretary

Want Gold for Silver

WASHINGTON May 20.—The treasury department has had some difficulty in the purchase of silver bullion for coining. Parties owning bullion wanted gold for it as the bullion contains on an average about 60 per cent of silver to 40 per cent of gold the treasury would however pay only in the standard silver dollars

A Chandler for Idaho

A Washington special says the president has nominated Wm I Chandler of Illinois, to be U S surveyor general for Idaho

Retirement of Legal Tenders

WASHINGTON May 21.—The action of the senate finance committee this morning authorizing a favorable report upon the house bill to forbid further retirement of U S legal tender notes was taken without a formal vote in view of the expectation entertained by several members of the committee that the passage of this bill may have the result of putting a stop to legislation for any further amendment of specie resumption

Argument of Railroad Rights

WASHINGTON May 21.—Argument was made by ex Gov Safford of Arizona before the senate military affairs committee to day in advocacy of the bill sanctioning the construction of the bridge of the Southern Pacific Co of California across the Colorado at Fort Yuma. Delegate Stevens Judge Osborne and Messrs Sandford and Tower of Arizona were also before the committee to support the representations of Safford that the people of the territory are deeply interested in the road as the only one which has entered its borders and strongly desired the maintenance of the railway facilities thus afforded

The Gen. Shields Bill

The proposition to place Gen Shields on the retired list was rejected by a majority of the senate mainly on the ground of an unwillingness to establish an unwise precedent but it would undoubtedly have passed if not rendered objectionable to some senators by Sergeant's Grant amendment. The bill in creasing the pension to an amount sufficient for his support will soon be passed without opposition

Debate on the Army Bill.

General debate on the army bill will be closed in the house to morrow. Present indications are that it will run several days under the five minute rule in the committee of the whole and that its proposed reductions of the force of the army will be defeated by a small majority. The final vote however will be very close and the result is decidedly uncertain
